

Membership 2017

Advancing the understanding of animal science

BSAS is committed to the well-being of animals in all systems and improving livelihoods from livestock.

- A progressive and friendly organisation
- Accredited professionals
- Independent information
- Worldwide networks
- Student focused programmes
- Grants and scholarships
- Journal ANIMAL
- Magazine ANIMAL BYTES
- Conferences and workshops

Membership

Members include scientists, vets, consultants, teachers, students, advisers, government officials and those working in commercial companies and agencies from around the world.

Expertise from all disciplines and species on the science of animals

A friendly enthusiastic and professional membership

Tropical meetings and workshops are delivered in the UK, Europe and overseas.

As a member you will receive:

- the on-line journal Animal
- discounts at conferences
- regular newsletters and email updates
- access to scientific information and the leading scientists involved in animal science
- support from the BSAS office
- membership of a premier scientific organisation with networks for
- career and job opportunities

Conferences

- BSAS organises the UK's premier annual animal science conference every spring with 500 delegates
- Tropical meetings and workshops are delivered in the UK, Europe and overseas.
- This year 2017 BSAS will host the 1200 delegate EAAP Conference in Belfast.

Awards and Publications

- Gives awards to honour scientists in animal welfare
- The leading journal 'Animal' is published monthly on-line and in printed version and the series Advances in Animal Biosciences
- Gives awards to honour scientists in animal welfare and animal science. RSPCA/BSAS Award for Innovative Developments in Animal Welfare; Sir John Hammond Memorial Prize.

Worldwide Information and Links

BSAS has -

- strong networks with animal science organisations worldwide and with relevant UK societies including those in nutrition, grassland, ecology, engineering, fertility, biology, health development issues and welfare;
- balanced independent scientific information. The Society is consulted by government and other organisations on animal science policy/issues;
- an active European involvement through EAAP and worldwide contacts with experts, including those in developing countries.

Young People

- BSAS is committed to encouraging students and young people from around the world to become involved in its activities. It has an active Student Council.
- Undergraduates join FREE
- Postgraduate members pay 50% subscription fee
- Scholarships are offered to attend conferences, undertake study tours and short research projects.
- Students qualify for reduced registration fee to BSAS Conferences
- Student workshops on writing, speaking, viva and technical skills

www.bsas.org.uk

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Title: Prof/Dr/Mr/Mrs/Miss/Ms First Name:Last Name:

Organisation: University/institutue/company where you are based

MAIN CONTACT ADDRESS (please indicate home/business address)

.....Postcode: Country:

Date of Birth :Nationality:.....Email :

Tel No:Mobile No

Nominator

Nominator's Name.....

The nominator should be someone who can confirm your interests in animal science.

Nominator's email.....

Date.....

Education details - Students Only

Name of University/College: Course title

Course Finish date:.....DD/MM/YY Supervisor:

Members can opt for the on-line version of the journal only or the printed version of the journal which also includes online access. Membership runs from 1 January - 31 December each year with the initial subscription on joining and thereafter on 1 January each year. The preferred method of payment for subscriptions from a UK bank account is by DIRECT DEBIT - download from membership home page.

BSAS offers corporate membership to companies. For more details contact bsas@bsas.org.uk

Subscription rates 2017

* On-line version of journal

Full members £80.00

Post-Graduate/Retired £40.00

 Printed version of journal (plus access to online version)

Full member £130.00

Post-Graduate/Retired £ 90.00

Access journal on-line

Undergraduate FREE

Gift Aid

If you pay tax in the UK, Gift Aid is a scheme by which you can give a sum of money to charity and the charity can reclaim from the Inland Revenue the basic rate tax on your subscription or donation. Please help us to claim our entitlement by completing the Gift Aid declaration. Please note that if you claim tax back on your annual tax return for your BSAS subscription then you will not be eligible to complete the Gift Aid declaration.

If the address you have entered on the form above is not your home address then please email details to frances.meehan@bsas.org.uk

I am a UK registered tax payer. Please claim Gift Aid from my annual subscription. I will inform you if my circumstances change and Gift Aid can no longer be claimed on my subscription.

- I have enclosed a mini cv (approx 100 words)
- I have enclosed a completed Direct Debit form (preferred method of payment)
- I will pay by bank transfer (contact BSAS)
- My credit/debit card details are included

Cardholder's Name (Block Capitals Please)

Credit/Debit Card Type Visa/Mastercard/JCB/Switch No:.....

Expiry Date:3 digit number on back of card:.....

Cardholder's Signature.....Date.....

Please send your completed application to: British Society of Animal Science, PO Box 3, Penicuik, Midlothian EH26 ORZ, UK Email: frances.meehan@bsas.org.uk www.bsas.org.uk

